Par Ferdinand Denis. Paris, J. Techener. 1850. 8vo, pp. 104. Folded Plate.

"This volume relates to a grand fête which took place at Rouen, in France, in the year 1550, when fifty Indians of the Tupinambas tribe, from Brazil, exhibited their war dances and combats on the banks of the Seine before Catherine de Médicis, as had been the custom in their own country on great occasions. The editor, in his preliminary remarks says: It is certain that this account of the event, which, to the present time had escaped the notice of historians, ought not to surprise us when we recollect how intimate were the relations of Rouen, Dieppe, and Honfleur with South America. The tract giving the particulars of the fête was printed by order of the aldermen of Rouen, thus giving to it a character of authenticity. In the "Chronicon" of Eusebius, printed by Stephanus in 1512, and several times subsequently, is an account of seven North American Indians who visited Rouen in the year 1509; so it appears that the people of that city were accustomed to visits from Indians."—J. The numbers from January to June, 1774, have the above imprint; the succeeding numbers were printed by Greenleaf. The number for July, which was the first printed by Greenleaf, was mispaged 235–272. On the completion of the first volume (January to December, 1774) the following title was printed:

The | Royal American | Magazine | or | Universal Repository | of | Instruction and Amusement. | Volume I. | For the Year 1774. | ... | America: | Boston; Printed at Greenleaf's Printing-Office | in Union-Street, near the Market, where Sub- | scriptions continue to be taken in. | [1774.] 8vo, pp. (4), 240, (2), 235–272, (2), 283–480, Index (7). 19 Plates. B. 73782

Of volume II., three numbers were published (January, February and March, 1775), containing 120 pages (the last page wrongly numbered 106) and 3 plates. Pages 84–88 in the March number were mispaged 184–188. A reprint of Hutchinson's "History of Massachusetts" was published as an appendix to this magazine, a portion being issued with each number; but it was not completed, and consists of pages 1–152 only, without a title-page. See Vol. IX., No. 34077.

Bouquet conferring with savage chiefs; XIX. The manner that bees take their repose. January, 1775: I. Frontispiece. February, 1775: II. History of Lauretta. March, 1775: III. America in distress.

"A prospectus of this work appeared many months before the magazine; but the disordered state of public affairs, and the difficulties which individuals experienced from them, prevented it from being sooner put to press; and after a few numbers had been published, the distress occasioned to the inhabitants of Boston by shutting up and blockading their port, obliged its editor to suspend the publication. The first number for January, 1774, was published at the close of that month. It was printed on a large medium paper in octavo, on a new handsome type. Each number contained three sheets of letter press, and two copperplate engravings. ... The type metal cut in the title page, represented, by an aboriginal, America seated on the ground ... The editor [Isaiah Thomas], after having been at considerable trouble and expense in bringing the work before the public, published it six months, and then was obliged, first to suspend, and afterwards to relinquish it; but Joseph Greenleaf continued the publication until April following, when the war put a period to the magazine. This was the last periodical work published in Boston before the revolution. It had a considerable list of subscribers."—THOMAS's History of Printing (1874), II. 72–73. See also Mass. Hist. Edited by Buckingham Smith. One hundred and sixty copies printed. "This relation of the missions, Indians, and Natural History of the Province of Sonora, was written by an unknown hand. The writer was a Jesuit missionary, resident in that country eleven years, when by order or request of the authorities, the MS. was written in 1762. It is for the first time printed here, having been several times copied, and from one of the transcripts, made for the purpose of aiding Munoz in writing his history of the New World, this printed work is now produced."—FIELD.

I now print a few copies in order to preserve so interesting a memorial of Cotton Mather's work—in which, it will be observed, there is no touch of anti-slavery sentiment, which was indeed almost unknown at that period, anywhere."

Title furnished by Henry Phillips, Jr., Esq., from a copy in the library of the American Philosophical Society at Philadelphia. The following description is by another hand: "Prefixed to this title-page is a dedication in the form of a title, with eight prefatory pages: then succeeds the above stated title and five other pages and three plates, two of which are folding."

RUMSEY. A | Plan, | Wherein the power of Steam is fully shewn, by a new constructed Ma- | chine, for propeling Boats or Vessels, of any burthen, against the | most rapid streams or rivers, with great velocity. Also, a Machine, | constructed on similar philosphical [sic] principles, by which water may be | raised for Grist or Saw-Mills, watering of Meadows, &c. &c. | By James Rumsey, | Of Berkly County, Virginia. | [Philadelphia. 1788.] 4to, pp. 20, (2). N. 74126

The above title fills the upper half of the first page, on the lower part of which the author begins his essay with "To the Public." This ends on page 9, verso blank, and is signed and dated, "James Rumsey, Berkly County, Virginia, January 1, 1788." Pages 11 to 20 are printed on different paper, and contain affidavits, certificates and letters in regard to the speed of Rumsey's steamboat. The final leaf contains the "Postscript," with eleven lines of errata on the verso. Title and description furnished by Mr. William Kelby. For the reprint appended to John Fitch's "Original Steam-Boat supported," Philadelphia, 1788, see Vol. VI., No. 24582, and for collation read, pp. 34, 20.

RUMSEY. A | Short | Treatise | on the application of | Steam, | whereby is clearly shewn, | from | actual experiments, | that | Steam | may be applied to propel | Boats or Vessels | of any burthen against rapid currents with great velocity. | Great Velocity [sic]. | The same Principles are also introduced with Effect, by a Machine of a sim- | ple and chep [sic] Construction, for the Purpose of raising Water | sufficient for the working of | Grist-Mills, Saw-Mills, &c. | And for Watering Meadows and Other Purposes of Agriculture. | By James Rumsey, | Of Berkeley County, Virginia. | Philadelphia, | Printed by Joseph James: Chesnut-Street. | M,DCC,LXXXVIII. | 8vo, pp. 26. L. 74127

On the verso of the title is the following "Advertisement," dated "Philadelphia, May 7, 1788:"—"The following pages are taken from a pamphlet published in Virginia, to prove the author's prior right of applying steam, to propel boats &c. as well as to establish the principles on which he has done it, a few copies were then thought sufficient for that purpose, but as Mr. Fitch intends to answer the pamphlet, it is therefore necessary to re-publish as much of it as respects Mr. Fitch, which is done with no other variation, from the original, than to correct a few of the omissions and mistakes that were introduced into the first publication, from the hurry in which it was done, (as the author at that time could not attend the press) and was circulated with an apology annexed to the postscript, for the imperfections of the impression," etc. Some copies have a corrected title as follows:

"The waters of Abington, and Bath, near Bristol, were much resorted to till near the middle of the present century. The fame of the supposed 'Philadelphia Mineral Water,' on the disagreeable taste and fetid smell of which Dr. Rush has much to say, was short-lived. The true cause of these qualities being soon discovered to arise not from mineral sources, but from one which put an immediate stop to the use of the water, and made its advocates and their disciples a subject of ridicule."—HILDEBURN.

RUSHTON (E.) Expostulatory | Letter | to | George Washington, | of | Mount Vernon, | in Virginia, | on his continuing to be | a Proprietor of Slaves. | By Edward Rushton. | Liverpool Printed. | 1797. | 12mo, pp. 24. BA., H. 74280

Apparently privately printed. "In July last the following letter was transmitted to the person to whom it is addressed, and a few weeks ago it was returned under cover, without a syllable in reply. As children that are crammed with confectionery, have no relish for plain and wholesome food; so men in power, who are seldom addressed but in the sweet tones of adulation, are apt to be disgusted with the plain and salutary language of truth. To offend was not the intention of the writer; yet the president has evidently been irritated; this however is not a bad symptom, for irritation causelessly excited, will frequently subside into shame, and to use the language of the moralist, 'where there is yet shame, there may in time be virtue.' Liverpool, February 20th, 1797."—Extract. It was also issued as a broadside.

The signatures are as follows: aa in eight, bb in six, a–z, &, 9, ꝛ and A–F in eights, G in six, H–P in eights, Q in ten, R–Z and ꝛ in eights, ꝓ in six, AA–FF in eights, and GG in ten. The last printed leaf (unnumbered) contains the register on the recto and the colophon on the verso. There are two varieties of this edition, both of which are in the British Museum. In the earlier kind the recto of the first leaf is blank, the title in red ink, and the printer's mark and monogram being omitted. The priority of this kind is proved by the register, which in all copies refers to the first lear as "Prima alba." The title given above is taken from a copy of the later issue. The work is a sort of universal history from the earliest times. Each ennead consists of nine books, whence the name. The continuation was printed six years later, as follows:

SABELLICUS. This volume contains the eighth, ninth and tenth enneads, with two books of an eleventh ennead. The signature marks are: aa in six, a–f in eights, g in ten, h–x in eights, y and z in sixes, and & in nine.

There is no reference whatever to America in the first volume of 1498; but in this continuation of 1504, beginning on the recto of folio CLXXI and filling nearly the whole of the next page, is a concise account of the discoveries made in the first and second voyages of Columbus. Mention is also made of the voyage of Pedro Alonso Nuño. On folio CLXVIII is the passage supposed by some writers to refer to a relative of Christopher Columbus: "(quas Columbus iunior archipirata illustris cruento prœlio oppresserat)," etc. Complete sets of the work are very rare. Of the first volume copies are not infrequently met with. The second volume, however, appears to be lacking in most of the great public libraries, and even in the best known collections of Americana. Harrisse (Bib. Am. Vet., pp. 52–54) gives only a brief title of it, copied from the Kloss catalogue, and adds the following remarks: "We regret to say that we have never been able to consult that rare compilation, which is frequently quoted in histories, where mention is made of Columbus and his transatlantic voyages. The eighth book of the tenth Enneade contains a short, ... but, we are told, highly interesting sketch of Columbus. It was written before the year 1503, at a time when the only printed works treating of the Western World, so far as we know, were Columbus' letter, Syllacio's second-hand relation, and one or two of the letters of Vespuccius. On that account the Enneades, like Maffei of Volterra's Commentary, and Bergomas' Chronicle, acquire that kind of interest which pertains to all works relating to this country, and published before the first Decades of Peter Martyr, which form, as it were, the basis and material of all subsequent publications on the subject."

The set from which the above description is made was formerly in the possession of the Hon. Henry C. Murphy, who bought it from a London bookseller in 1874 for £25. Later editions are as follows:

This Portuguese translation of the "Enneades" probably contains the passages relating to Columbus and the discovery of America.

In the "Rerum Venetiarum" of Sabellicus, first printed in Latin at Venice in 1487, is an account of a naval engagement in which was engaged "Columbus junior, Columbi piratæ illustris, ut ajunt, nepos." Some writers have supposed that the Columbus mentioned in this passage was the same person as the discoverer of America, but this theory has been disproved. The same account is found in the Italian versions entitled, "Chroniche che tractano de la origine de Veneti," printed at Venice about the years 1500 and 1507; in "Le Historie Vinitiane di Marco Antonio Sabellico," printed at Venice in 1544; and in the later editions published in 1554 and 1558.

[SAEGHMAN (Gillis Joosten).] Verscheyde Oost-Indische | Voyagien: | Met de | Beschrijvingen van | Indien. | t'Eerste Deel. | t'Amsterdam by Gillis Ioosten Saeghman. | [1663–1670?] 4to. L.

This is known as Saeghman's collection, from the name of the publisher. The above title of the first division is in an engraved frontispiece, similar to the one used for Hartgers' collection of voyages. This is followed by a reprint of Hartgers' introduction, in fifteen pages, beginning "Bondigh Verhael, Van het Begin en Voortgangh, der Vereenighde Nederlandtsche, Geoctroyeerde Oost-Indische Compagnie," and signed at the end by Saeghman. On the sixteenth page is a sonnet, also signed by Saeghman. Then follow the various relations described below, each one with its own title, pagination and signatures. It is very unusual to find all of these parts together, and nearly every set varies more or less in the order of arrangement, which is given below and numbered as in Tiele's "Mémoire Bibliographique." There are two sets in the Lenox Library, each comprising both divisions bound together in one volume in the original hogskin binding, besides separate copies of several of the relations. One of these sets contains nineteen relations in the following order: I.–VII., XIII., VIII.–XII., and XVI. of the first part, I.–IV. of the second, and XVIII. of the first part. The other set contains twenty-four relations, viz.: I.–IV., VI., VII., XIII., and VIII.–X. of the first part, I. and II. of the second, V. of the first, III. and IV. of the second, XI., XII., XVI., XIX. (Den Vermeerderden Spieghel), and XVIII. of the first, and IX., V., VII. and VI. of the second part. These were all originally issued separately, and in that form are not uncommon. Complete sets, however, with the two general titles and introduction, are extremely rare. "Le mérite des éditions de Saeghman est fort médiocre. Ses réimpressions sont en grande partie abrégées ou mutilées, & ce qu'il y a ajouté est très-insignifiant. Les images dont il a prétendu orner ses journaux, sont pour la plupart des gravures en bois, tirées d'ouvrages antérieurs. Les images bibliques de Van Sichem, entre autres, lui ont fourni un large contingent." See also Tiele's "Mémoire Bibliographique sur les Journaux des Navigateurs Néerlandais," pp. 18–20.

The "Modo De admistrar el Baptismo, à los Indios infantes," beginning on the verso of leaf 30 and ending on the verso of leaf 31, is in Spanish and Mexican; followed by the "Modo De admistrar el Baptismo à los Indios Adultos," in Mexican alone, from the verso of leaf 31 to the recto of leaf 36. A copy of the above "Manual" was sold at the Ramirez sale in 1880 for £7 10s. According to Beristain, the author was "natural de las islas Canarias. Tomó en México la beca del colegio mayor de Santa Maria de Todos Santos en 1º de Junio de 1636, y á poco tiempo la borla de doctor teólogo en la universidad. El Ven. Sr. obispo Don Juan de Palafox le nombró su secretario, y le dió despues el curato de la ciudad de Tlaxcala; y en una de sus pastorales, en que recomienda á todos los curas el uso del Manual, que ya voy á expresar, dice: 'Tenemos particular satisfaccion de su Autor por sus letras, virtud, recogimiento, amor al servicio de Dios, y cumplimiento de sus obligaciones.' The above work, better known as the "Landnámabók," was printed in Iceland. It is considered the first authority in all matters connected with the early history of the island, and is often referred to for information concerning the early Norse voyagers to Greenland and Vinland. The compilation was the work of several authors, beginning with Ari Thorgilsson, continued by Kolskeggr Asbjörnsson, Sturla Thórdarson, and Styrmir Kárason, the whole revised by Haukr Erlendsson, and finally edited by Thórdr Thorláksson. Copies are sometimes found with the two following works, bound in one volume, as originally issued:

Collation: Title, verso blank; introductory remarks, pp. 3–12; "Les Mots Francois tournez en Huron," 66 unnumbered leaves in double columns. Signatures a–i in eights.

This dictionary is usually bound with Sagard's "Grand Voyage" printed in 1632, of which it forms a part. Some copies, however, may have been issued separately at the time of publication, as it is sometimes found apart from the larger work. Mr. Henry C. Murphy's copy sold for $50. It was reprinted in 1865 to accompany the new editions of the "Grand Voyage" and "Histoire du Canada" published at Paris by Tross, and of this reprint there is a separate issue as follows:

SAGARD THEODAT. Dictionnaire de la Langue Huronne par Gabriel Sagard Theodat Recollet de S. François de la Province de S. Denys en France. Réimpression figurée de l'édition rarissime de 1632. Tirage à part à 66 exemplaires. Paris Librairie Tross 1865 8vo, cover-title as above, facsimile of original title, pp. 3–12, and 66 unnumbered leaves. 74882

The above reprint also forms a part of the new editions of the "Grand Voyage" and "Histoire du Canada." At the end of the volume is the colophon: Imprimé par H. Schoutheer, à Arras pour la Librairie Tross, à Paris. M. D. CCC. LXV.

A work of great interest and importance. Copies are rarely found in good condition, and perfect in every respect. "Father Sagard, a member of the Recollects in Paris, was directed by a congregation of his order to accompany Father Nicholas, in a mission to the savages of New France. He sailed from Dieppe in the latter part of March, 1624, and arrived at Quebec after a voyage of three months and six days, during which he endured such sufferings, that he says the whole of his life has not equaled in pain. He proceeded at once to the scene of his mission among the Hurons, one hundred and fifty leagues west of Quebec. Here he remained but a few months, when it was determined to send him to Quebec, for supplies. His fortitude was not equal to the emergency, and worn down with the privations and sufferings of a missionary life, he allowed himself to be persuaded by his brethren that it was not his vocation. He accordingly returned to his convent in Paris, where he wrote the work we have considered, and four years subsequently, produced his 'Histoire du Canada.'"—FIELD. "L'Auteur de cet Ouvrage," says Charlevoix (Liste et Examen des auteurs, p. XLIX), "avoit demeuré quelque tems parmi les Hurons, & raconte naïvement tout ce qu'il a vû, et oui dire sur les lieux, mais il n'a pas eu le tems de voir assez bien les choses, encore moins de verifier tout ce qu'on lui avoit dit. Le Vocabulaire Huron, qu'il nous a laissé, prouve que ni lui, ni aucun de ceux, qu'il a pu consulter, ne sçavoient bien cette langue, laquelle est très-difficile; par conséquent que les conversions des Sauvages n'ont pas été en grand nombre de son tems. D'ailleurs il paroît homme fort judicieux, et très-zélé, non-seulement pour le salut des ames, mais encore pour le progrès d'une Colonie, qu'il avoit presque vû naître, & qu'il a vuë presque étouffée dans son berceau, par l'invasion des Anglois. Du reste il nous apprend peu de choses intéressantes." Mr. Brinley's and Mr. O'Callaghan's copies each sold for $57.50; Mr. Murphy's for $170. Priced by Quaritch (1886), £36; Leclerc (1887), bound in two volumes, 400 francs; Dufossé (1887), bound in two volumes, 500 francs.

natures A in eight, ẽ in six, A–Ttt in eights, Vuu in four, and Xxx in two. Between pages 312 and 313 are four unnumbered leaves (including one blank), containing four pages of Indian music, with Huron words.

Extremely rare. At the bottom of page 27 of the preliminary matter are the words, "Acheué d'imprimer pour la premiere fois le dernier Aoust 1636." "The travels and missionary labors of the Recollects among the Indians of Canada, for nine years before the arrival of Father Sagard, form the subject of Book I. The narrative of his 'Grand Voyage to the Country of the Hurons,' which appeared three years before, is extended by additional particulars, from chapters xxii, in the edition of 1632, to xlvi in Book II. of the 'Histoire du Canada.' Book III. is a reproduction of Part II. of the 'Grand Voyage,' with new matter, increasing it from 85 to 135 pages. Book IV. contains the history of the Recollect missions to the end of 1629."—FIELD. The statement made by some bibliographers, that this edition is also accompanied by the Huron dictionary, is a mistake. The copy described by Harrisse ("Notes sur la Nouvelle France," No. 62) was evidently not the "Histoire du Canada" at all, but a copy of the "Grand Voyage" with the wrong title prefixed. Mr. Murphy's copy sold for $225. Priced by Leclerc (1881), with the music and two other leaves in facsimile, 1200 francs; Quaritch (1886), £63; Dufossé (1887), 1200 francs.

The first volume of this reprint was probably issued in 1864, as some copies are described as bearing that date. The price at which this edition was published was 48 francs on papier vélin, and 80 francs on papier de Hollande. The biography, which was also issued separately, has the following title:

Forms No. XVII. of Shea's Cramoisy Series. A few copies were printed on large paper. "Father Hennepin had among his contemporaries two rivals in the fabrication of new discoveries. The first was the noted La Hontan, whose book, like his own, had a wide circulation and proved a great success. ... Mathieu Sâgean is a personage less known than Hennepin or La Hontan; for, though he surpassed them both in fertility of invention, he was illiterate, and never made a book. In 1701, being then a soldier in a company of marines at Brest, he revealed a secret which he declared that he had locked within his breast for twenty years, having been unwilling to impart it to the Dutch and English, in whose service he had been during the whole period. His story was written down from his dictation, and sent to the minister Ponchartrain. It is preserved in the Bibliothèque Nationale, and in 1863 it was printed by Mr. Shea." —PARKMAN's La Salle and the Discovery of the Great West, pp. 458–461, where a summary of the relation is given. An English version is in the "Historical Magazine," vol. x. (1866), pp. 65–71. In the British Museum (Grenville collection) is the following: "The original Manuscript account of the Kingdom of Aacaniba, given by the Affidavit of M. Sagean, who with his Companions were the first Europeans in that Country, which, tho' hitherto unknown to all Geographers; yet on the faith of that relation, the late Regent of France erected the Mississippi, now the French East-India Company. But as that manuscript was never before published, which relates as facts, matters very singular, it is Englished by Quin Mackenzie, who, that he may not seem to have exaggerated its original, adjoins an authentic duplicate thereof. SAHAGUN (B. de). La Aparicion de N.tra Señora de Guadalupe de Mexico, Comprobada con la refutacion del argumento negativo que presenta D. Juan Bautista Muñoz, fundándose en el testimonio del P. Fr. The manuscript from which this volume was printed is a revision of book XII. of the "Historia General," made by Sahagun many years after the work was originally written. In this form it was entitled, "Relacion de la Conquista de esta Nueva España como la contaron los soldados indios que se hallaron presentes. Convirtióse en lengua española llana é inteligible y bien enmendada, este año de 1585." It came into the possession of Bustamante in 1832 or 1833, and was subsequently published by him with the above title, as a complement of the four volumes printed in 1829-30 (Nos. 74949, 74950, infra). See Icazbalceta's "Bibliografia Mexicana del Siglo XVI," pp. 280-281, 298.

[SAHAGUN.] Evangeliarium Epistolarium et Lectionarium Aztecum sive Mexicanum ex antiquo codice Mexicano nuper reperto depromptum cum præfatione interpretatione adnotationibus glossario edidit Bernardinus Biondelli Mediolani Typis Jos. Bernardoni Q.m Johannis MDCCCLVIII Folio, pp. xlix, 1 leaf, facsimile Plate, pp. 574, errata (2). L. 74948

In Mexican and Latin. This work, of which four hundred copies only were printed, was originally issued in six parts, the first appearing in 1858, and the last in 1860. It consists largely of extracts from the four gospels and epistles. The manuscript from which it was printed was written by Sahagun probably about the year 1563, according to Señor Icazbalceta. It was procured in the city of Mexico by the French traveller Beltrami in 1826, who notices it in his work "Le Mexique" (Paris, 1830,) II. 167. After Beltrami's death in 1854, it came into the possession of Biondelli, who prepared it for the press, and added the Latin text. A grammatical sketch of the Aztec language is given in the introduction, and a "Glossarium Azteco-Latinum" fills pages 427-553. Both of these were compiled by the editor Biondelli, who in 1869 published a new edition of the vocabulary, with the addition of a Latin-Aztec part, as: "Glossarium Azteco-Latinum et Latino-Aztecum curâ et studio Bernardini Biondelli collectum ac digestum Mediolani Apud Valentiner et Mues MDCCCLXIX," folio, pp. (2), 256, (1).

This is book XII. of the "Historia General," of which a revision was also published by Bustamante in 1840 (No. 74945, supra). Books I.-XI. were subsequently published as follows:

SAHAGUN. Historia General de las cosas de Nueva España, que en doce libros y dos volúmenes escribió el R. P. Fr. Bernardino de Sahagun, de la observancia de San Francisco, y uno de los primeros predicadores del Santo Evangelio en aquellas regiones. Dala á luz con notas y suplementos Cárlos Maria de Bustamante, Diputado por el Estado de Oaxaca en el Congreso General de la Federacion Mexicana: y la dedica á nuestro Santísimo Padre Pio VIII. ∴ Mexico: Imprenta del Ciudadano Alejandro Valdés, calle de Santo Domingo y esquina de Tacuba. 1829–1830. 3 vols., sm. 4to, pp. (6), xx, 277, xxxi, 279–350, (7), plate of calendar; (6), 397, xlvi, (9); (4), 339, (4). 74950

This edition contains books I. to XI., book XII. having already been published as No. 74949, supra. The great work of Sahagun, here for the first time printed, is a treasury of information on all matters relating to the ancient Mexicans. It was originally written in the Mexican language, and accompanied by numerous hieroglyphic paintings. In 1576 and 1577, about thirty years after its commencement, the author made a complete translation of the work into Spanish, and transcribed the whole into four folio volumes, the Spanish and Mexican in parallel columns, with a large number of illustrations and hieroglyphic figures. This manuscript, the most important and valuable of all, was long supposed to be lost. It is probable, however, as suggested by Señor Icazbalceta, that it may be identical with the manuscript now preserved in the Biblioteca Laurenziana at Florence, bound in three volumes. There are also extant several other early manuscripts of the work, mostly fragmentary, one of which, in the library of the Real Academia de la Historia at Madrid, is entirely in Mexican. The work was first brought to light, however, by the historian Muñoz, who in 1783 discovered a complete copy of the Spanish version in the convent of Tolosa, which he borrowed and had transcribed. From this other copies were made, one of which served for the above edition published by Bustamante, who, however, took some liberties with the text by omitting many passages and making various changes. The entire history in twelve books was printed with greater exactness in Lord Kingsborough's "Mexican Antiquities," vols. V. and VII., London, 1830, also from a transcript of the Muñoz copy. A long and interesting bibliographical description of the various manuscripts and editions of the "Historia" is given by Icazbalceta in his "Bibliografía Mexicana del Siglo XVI," pp. 273–308. See also Prescott's "Mexico," vol. I., chap. III., final note. For a supplement published by Bustamante, see Ixtlilxuchitl (F. de A.), Vol. IX., No. 35318.

SAHAGUN. Manual del Cristiano. [In the Mexican language.] Mexico. 1578. 4to? 74952

Concerning this work, which was licensed for the press on the 16th of February, 1578, see Icazbalceta's "Bibliografia Mexicana del Siglo xvi," p. 265. It may not have been printed.

SAHAGUN. Psalmodia | Christiana, y Sermona- | rio delos Sanctos del Año, en lengua Mexicana : | cõpuesta por el muy. R. The only perfect copy known to be extant is in the possession of Señor Icazbalceta of Mexico, who has given a facsimile of the title-page in his "Bibliografia Mexicana del Siglo xvi," from which the above is taken. There was an imperfect copy in the Andrade collection, and another, also very imperfect, was sold at the Ramirez sale (No. 759), for £11 15s. The "Licencia," "Examen" and "Prologo al lector" are also reprinted in the "Bibliografia," which contains a careful description of the volume, with facsimiles of several of the curious wood engravings printed in the text. The first fifteen leaves contain a "Doctrina Christiana." The work appears to have been commenced by Sahagun as early as 1558, although it was not printed until twenty-five years later. There is evidence to show that the work was condemned by the Inquisition, and copies destroyed. See Icazbalceta, pp. 247–253.

Fr. Bernardino de Sahagun was a native of Sahagun in the Spanish kingdom of Leon. After going through a course of studies at the University of Salamanca, he joined the order of Franciscans, and in 1529, when about thirty years of age, came with a party of friars to New Spain. Here he applied himself at once to the study of the Mexican language, in which he became very proficient, and for more than sixty years, until his death about the year 1590, he labored among the Indians in different parts of the country. In the knowledge of all matters pertaining to the history, traditions, manners, customs, religion, rites and language of the natives, he is said to have had no superior. He was the author and compiler of many works, both in Spanish and Mexican, most of which, however, remained in manuscript. For the account of his life and writings see Chavero's "Sahagun," Mexico, 1877; and Icazbalceta's "Bibliografia Mexicana del Siglo xvi," pp. 253–323. See also the Ramirez catalogue, Nos. 524, 544, 545, 762, 763, 764; and Quaritch's "General Catalogue" (1886), Nos. 30168–30171.

Traduite de l'Arménien et accompagnée du texte original. Par M. I. Saint-Martin ... Paris, Librairie orientale de Dondey-Dupré père et fils. 1827. 8vo, pp. 80. 75417

The travels of the Armenian bishop were performed in the years 1489 to 1496. On the eighth of April, 1494, he sailed in a Basque vessel from Guetaria in Spain on an Atlantic voyage to the West, which lasted seventy-eight days. Although no mention is made of the countries or places visited in this expedition, the editor Saint-Martin supposes that it reached America, and in support of his theory gives in the introduction some "Observations historiques sur les voyages entrepris dans l'Océan Atlantique, avant la découverte de l'Amérique par Christophe Colomb."

SALAZAR (Francisco Cervantes). [Commentaria in Ludovici Vives Exercitationes Linguæ Latinæ. Mexici, apud Joannem Paulum Brisensem. 1554. Title of the second part, recto of folio

Die | vero | sexta : mensis | Nouem | bris.* | ... | Sm. 8vo, leaves 290, (4).

The first title and two other leaves are lacking in the only known copy, described by Señor Icazbalceta in his "Bibliografía Mexicana del Siglo XVI.," pp. 47–48. Prefixed is a title in manuscript, which is given above enclosed in brackets. The work of Vives, with the intercalated commentary of Cervantes Salazar, begins on the fourth leaf and ends on folio 227, verso blank. The second part of the volume contains the dialogues of Cervantes Salazar, which begin with a new title on folio 228, and end on folio 290. The first four dialogues were written in Spain. The last three, beginning on the verso of folio 247, were written in Mexico, and are entitled : 1, "Academia Mexicana," containing a description of the University of Mexico, founded in the previous year ; 2, "Civitas Mexicus interior," giving an account of the city of Mexico ; and 3, "Mexicus Exterior," or an account of the suburbs. The four unnumbered leaves at the end contain an epistle of Alfonso Gómez, a list of errata for each one of the two parts, an epistle of the printer Juan Pablos, and the colophon. For a biographical sketch of the author, who was professor in the University of Mexico, see Icazbalceta, pp. 49–60. The three dialogues relating to Mexico were reprinted as follows :

SALAZAR. Mexico en 1554 Tres Diálogos Latinos que Francisco Cervántes Salazar escribió é imprimió en Mexico en dicho año. This work was written as a continuation of Antonio de Solis's history of the conquest of Mexico, and for that reason is called "Segunda parte." "Salazar's continuation of Solis has neither the beauty and style of language of the latter, nor any redeeming merit as a historical composition. The language is inflated and bombastic. The editor of the second edition acknowledges the inferiority of the work, but alleges as an apology for reprinting it, the want of something better to complete the work of Solis."—BARTLETT.

Improved title of No. 38381, Vol. IX., and No. 56007, Vol. XIII. Carta I. contains the following divisions relating to the Indians: Calidades de la provincia, pp. 12–36; Carácter y costumbres de los Indios, pp. 37–52; Religion de los Indios, pp. 53–59; De los curanderos de los Indios, pp. 59–65; Fiestas, entierros y exequias de los Indios, pp. 66–99; Idioma de los Indios [Ado and Cochimi languages], pp. 99–104. Pages 57–86 of Carta II. contain the "Informe que Yo D. Josef Tobar y Tamáriz, primer Piloto de la Real Armada, doy al Excelentisimo Señor Virrey de Nueva España, en obedecimiento de superior órden comunicada con fecha de 29 de Agosto de 1789." The two tables at the end of the volume are entitled: "Estado general de las misiones de la provincia de California en el año 1787," and "Estado que manifiesta los bienes que posee cada una de las misiones de esta Provincia, en el año 1788."

"Among the padres who left the country [Baja California] in 1788 or the next year was Father Luis Sales, author of the only work on California published by the Dominicans. The book is largely descriptive and does not purport to present a connected historical narration even of the Dominican period; yet it affords much useful information ... The letters are signed 'F. L. S.' and the archives contain ample material to identify him with Fray Luis Sales, though this identity is now announced for the first time. The first letter treats of geography and the Indians; the second includes historical material on the Jesuit and Franciscan periods, with a report on Nootka affairs; and the third treats largely of the Dominican occupation and the author's own experience. The letters bear no dates; the first and second were written from San Miguel mission, California, and the third from San Miguel, Azores Islands, whither the author had come as chaplain on a man-of-war from Vera Cruz. In carta I. 92–3, he speaks of a pestilence and revolt in 1788–9, the dates being doubtless misprints."—BANCROFT's History of the North Mexican States, I. 727.

Signatures [*], ¶, A and B in fours, B2 in two, C–K in fours.

There is a perfect copy of this edition in the library of the Colegio de San Nicolás at Morelia, which was discovered there in 1886 by Señor Icazbalceta, to whose admirable and exact reprint of the book I am indebted for the above title and collation. Of the three other copies known to Señor Icazbalceta, each one lacked the two unnumbered leaves which belong between folios 9 and 10, thus leaving a deficiency in the text, although the numbering of the leaves and the signature marks were full and regular. A translation of the "Arte" was published by the abbé Brasseur de Bourbourg in the second volume of the "Manuscrit Troano," with alterations in the order of arrangement. Beristain says that this author also wrote a "Diccionario Mayo-Hispano é Hispano-Mayo. Manuscrito en tres volúmenes en la Biblioteca de PP. Franciscanos de Yucatan. Consta de 500 pliegos, y es al mismo tiempo médico y botánico regional."

Seventy-six copies only were printed of this elegant edition, which conforms to the original, page for page and line for line. A bibliographical account of the book is given in Señor Icazbalceta's "Advertencia" at the end of the volume, pp. i–iii; this is followed by a list of "erratas del original," pp. iv–viii, and "erratas de la reimpresión," p. viii.

"The progress of the city is well illustrated by her several directories, of which eight appeared during the period of 1851–6, beginning in Sept. 1850 with the small 12° issue of 139 pp., by Chas. P. Kimball, containing somewhat over 2,500 names, and a meagre appendage of general information. It is altogether a hasty and badly arranged publication, yet of sufficient interest from being the pioneer in the field, and from its array of city founders to warrant the reprinting which it received a few years ago. The next directory did not appear till Sept. 1852, when A. W. Morgan & Co. issued an 8vo of 125 pp., wrongly called the first directory of the city. It contained a few more names than the preceding, although better arranged, and with a fuller appendix of generalities, including a business list. In the following month F. A. Bonnard published a 12mo business register. The first really excellent directory was issued in Dec. 1852 by J. M. Parker. It was an 8vo of 114 register pp., with about 9,000 names, prefaced by an historic sketch and an admirable plan of the city, and followed by a valuable appendix of general information and statistics. This covered 1851–3, and the next publication by Le Count & Strong was delayed till 1854. It contained 264 pp., and while not surpassing the preceding contained much general information. In Jan. 1856 Baggett & Co. issued the S. F. Business Directory in 222 pp., prepared by Larkin & Belden, wholly classified under business heads. In Oct. 1856 Harris, Bogardus, & Labatt appeared with a meagre directory of 138 pp., which was eclipsed by the simultaneous publication of Colville in 308 pp., containing about 12,000 names, with historic summary and a valuable appendix. A peculiar feature of the latter consisted of fine type notes throughout the register of names, with biographic and historic information concerning persons, societies, and notable buildings. The next issue was by Langley."—H. H. BANCROFT's California, VI. 787.

[SANDERS.] A | History | of the | Indian Wars | with the | First Settlers of the Uni- | ted States, | particularly | in New-England. | Written in Vermont. | ... | Montpelier, Vt. | Published by Wright and Sibley. | 1812. | Wright & Sibley Printers | 16mo, pp. 319. 76366

"The mystery which surrounded the authorship, history, and origin of this very rare volume, has been slowly dispelled by successive fragments of information. So few copies have survived the holocaust to which it was devoted, that its very existence was unknown to the most zealous collectors of Indian and Vermont history. Published anonymously, without preface, it was known to but few that the author was the Rev. Daniel Clark[e] Sanders, President of the University of Vermont. Immediately after its appearance, some person, evidently a personal enemy of the author, published an acrimonious critique upon the book, in the Liberal and Philosophical Repository. The animus of the critic was evidenced, not only by the bitterness of his language, but by his ignorance of the subject of Indian wars, being more profound than that of the author of the book he scored. Such was the effect of the article upon either Mr. Sanders, or the publishers, that the work was suppressed. But very few copies could have escaped the hands that were now as zealous to destroy, as they had lately been to create. In fact, so nearly complete was the destruction of the book, that it was forgotten by those who professed to know most of its author, his biographers. Neither Thompson, Williams, or Hemmenway, who published memoirs of him, mention his authorship of the Indian wars."—FIELD. Copies have been sold for the following prices: Field, in 1875, $102.50; Menzies, in 1876, $62.50; Hoffman, in 1877, $46. See "Historical Magazine," vol. II. (1858), p. 63.

[SANDYS (George), Translator.] The First Five Bookes of Ovid's Metamorphosis. Second Edition. [London:] Imprinted for W. B. 1621. 16mo, pp. 141, besides the introduction.

"This edition of the translation of Ovid by Geo. Sandys, is unnoticed in all the lists of his works. The title is engraved on a curtain, supported by two flying Cupids; above the curtain, Venus lying on a couch of clouds, holding a burning heart, attended with doves and the god of love, and below a full assembly of the heathen deities. 'Fr. Delaram, sculp.' A head of Ovid in an oval, with verses beneath, as in the folios. 'Ovid defended,' is the only article prefixed to this edition, which has a trifling variance from the subsequent ones, as giving for 'Ovid's selfe-censure,' a translation of the concluding lines of lib. 15. ... Of the edition, dated 1621, I have never seen any other copy than the one described above. The date of the first edition of the five books yet remains to be ascertained."—JOSEPH HASLEWOOD in Brydges's Censura Literaria, VI., 132, 133, 135. "Of the first edition I cannot trace a copy."—HAZLITT.

Sandys's complete translation of Ovid's Metamorphoses, as printed in 1626, was made while he was in Virginia, as Secretary to the Colony there. Richard Hooper, London, 1872. See also the "Historical Magazine," II. 212.

S[ANDYS]. Ovids Metamorphosis. Englished by G. S. Imprinted at London. MDCXXVI. Cum Priuilegio. [Colophon:] London Printed by William Stansby. 1626. Sm. folio. Sig. a in four, b in six, A–Rr in fours, and ss in six. BM. 76456 of Ovid engraved by Wm. Marshall. "The first English literary production penned in America, at least which has any rank or name in the general history of literature, is the translation of Ovid's Metamorphoses, by George Sandys, printed in folio in London in 1626. The writer was the distinguished traveller, whose book on the countries of the Mediterranean and the Holy Land, is still perused with interest by curious readers. It was some time after his return from the East that he was employed in the government of the Colony in Virginia, where he held the post of treasurer of the company [in 1621]. There, on the banks of James river, he translated Ovid, under circumstances of which he has left a memorial in his dedication of the work to King Charles I."—DUYCKINCK. Under the year 1623, it is related by Stith ("History of Virginia," p. 303), that "in the Midst of these Tumults and Alarms, the Muses were not silent. For at this time, Mr. George Sandys, the Company's Treasurer of Virginia, made his translation of Ovid's Metamorphoses, a very laudable Performance for the Times." An edition of London, 1627, is mentioned by Lowndes, but its existence is doubtful.

The introduction and conclusion are written by the Commissary General of the Indias, Fray Juan de Santander, and contain a royal cedula. From them may be gathered, that the attempt to convert the natives of New Mexico commenced more than thirty years before the year 1626, but was unsuccessful for the dozen first years. In about 1621 the religious establishment was raised by the provincial chapter into a custodia, and Benavides was elected custodian of its provinces. An order of the Commissary Santander permitted twenty-six ministers to be taken to those conversions. In 1627, their number having been reduced by death to sixteen friars and three servants, a royal order, which was carried to effect from the province of Santo Evangelio of Mexico, directed that thirty others be added with the requisite assistants. The first five years of the administration of Benavides were attended with signal successes: over five hundred thousand persons were converted to the Christian faith, of whom over eighty-six thousand received baptism. This important work, which brought a numerous people under the royal authority, the prosperous condition of the country, with the discoveries of mineral wealth, induced the viceroy of Mexico, the Marquis of Cerralvo, to order him to report thereon in person to the king. In consequence he repaired to court, and on that occasion the memoir was prepared, as well from the experience and observation of the author, as from a varied collection of authentic material afforded by the repertory of the Commissary General of New Spain."—DUYCKINCK. Mr. H. H. Bancroft, in his "History of Arizona and New Mexico" (San Francisco, 1888), p. 162, characterizes this work as "the most important authority extant on these times." From his note it appears that he had never seen the Spanish original, but had used a copy of the French version (Bruxelles, 1631), in the library of M. Alphonse Pinart. He also makes a statement, on the authority of Fernandez Duro, that "P. Benavides published in 1632 another memorial, proposing the opening of the rivers of the bay of Espiritu Santo, according to a reference of P. Posadas," and adds that "Juan Laet made an extract of the Descrip. Novisima of N. Mex. in his work, the Novus Orbis." P. Benavides did not return to New Mexico, but became archbishop of Goa in India. Another account of the New Mexican missions is mentioned by Bancroft, on the authority of Fernandez Duro, under the following title: Verdadera relacion de la grandiosa conversion que ha habido en el N. Mexico, enviada por el P. Fr. Estévan de Perea, custodio de las provincias ... dandole cuenta del estado de aquellas conversiones ... Sevilla. 1632. Folio, 4 leaves. See also Transactions of the American Ethnological Society, vol. II., pp. clxix–clxxiii. The above title, as given by Leclerc ("Bibliotheca Americana," 1878, No. 529), appears to belong to the atlas accompanying the "Recherches sur la priorité," etc., No. 76851, infra. It should contain 30 engravings of early maps on 24 plates, relating especially to Africa.

SANTAREM. Atlas composé de Mappemondes et de Cartes Hydrographiques et Historiques du XIe au XVIIe siècle pour la plupart inédites et tirées de plusieurs bibliothèques de l'Europe Devant servir de preuves au Mémoire sur la priorité de la découverte de la côte occidentale d'Afrique au dela du cap Bojador par les Portugais et d'illustration a l'Histoire de la géographie du moyen age Recueillies et gravées sous la direction Du Vicomte De Santarem ... . Large folio. 30 Maps on 24 Plates. 76835

This title also accompanies the copy described under No. 76838, infra.

SANTAREM. Atlas composé de Mappemondes et de Cartes Hydrographiques et Historiques depuis le XIe. jusqu'au XVIIe. siècle, pour la plupart inédites et tirées du plusieurs bibliothèques de l'Europe Devant servir de preuves à l'ouvrage sur la priorité de la découverte de la cote occidentale d'Afrique au dela du Cap Bojador, par les Portugais et à l'histoire de la Geographie du Moyen Age. Recueillies et gravées sous la direction du Vicomte de Santarem. Paris. 1842. Large folio. P. 76836

The title varies slightly from that of No. 76835, supra. A copy of this kind was described by Mr. Frederick Muller of Amsterdam, in his catalogue for 1872 (No. 2307), as containing 30 maps on 24 plates, comprising numbers [9], [8], [22], [31], [26], [42], [39], [54], [55], [56], [57], [58], [60], [61], [62], [63], [64], [71], [73], [75], [74], [76], [77] and [21] of the list given under No. 76838, infra. The plan of the work was subsequently enlarged and made to illustrate the history of geography from the middle ages to the seventeenth century. A new title was therefore printed, as follows:

SANTAREM. Atlas composé de Mappemondes, de Portulans et de Cartes Hydrographiques et Historiques depuis le VIe jusqu'au XVIIe siècle, pour la plupart inédites, et tirées de plusieurs bibliothèques de l'Europe, devant servir de preuves a l'Histoire de la Cosmographie et de la Cartographie pendant le moyen age et a celle des progrès de la Géographie, après les découvertes maritimes et terrestres du XVe siècle, effectuées par les Portugais, les Espagnols, et par d'autres peuples. Recueillies et gravées sous la direction Du Vicomte De Santarem ... . Publié sous les auspices du gouvernement Portugais. Paris. Imprimé par E. Thunot et Cᵉ, rue Racine, 28, près de l'Odéon. MDCCCXLIX. Large folio.

This great atlas was never completed. The maps are unnumbered, excepting several of those originally in the atlas of 1842, which formed the basis of this larger work. As they were issued separately, and at irregular intervals from 1842 to 1855, there is some uncertainty as to the exact number and order of the maps, the arrangement of which varies in nearly every copy. For a list see the following number.

SANTAREM. Atlas, composé de Mappemondes, de Portulans, et de Cartes Hydrographiques et Historiques, depuis le VIe jusqu'au XVIIe siècle, pour la plupart inédites, devant servir de preuves à l'histoire de la Cosmographie et de la Cartographie pendant le moyen age, et a celle des progrès de la géographie, recueillies et gravées sous la direction du Vicomte de Santarem. Paris, 1842–53. Folio. L. 76838

On the verso of the above title is the following notice: "The preceding Title and the following Table of Contents have been edited by Bernard Quaritch, bookseller, 15 Piccadilly, London, 1864. Only 12 copies printed." The "Index of Maps" on the two following pages begins with this account of the work: "The Vicomte de Santarem published originally, in 1842, a work entitled 'Recherches sur la priorité de la Découverte de la Côte Occidentale d'Afrique,' with an Atlas consisting of 30 plates. He afterwards made this Atlas, (which was in fact unfinished at the time,) the foundation of the present great work, which contains 78 plates, and was published at the expense of the Portuguese Government. It was not, however, completed, in consequence of his death in the year 1855. The Maps in this last Atlas are not numbered, except those belonging to the original work, the numeration of which is no longer appropriate. There are frequently several Maps on one sheet or page of the new series, and these have been selected without any principle of sequence or order. There is no list or index for the arrangement of the sheets; but M. de Santarem communicated to the 'Nouvelles Annales des Voyages' (1855, vol. 2) shortly before his death, a classified list or catalogue of the several Maps, and this may serve as a guide for arranging the sheets. The sheets in this copy follow as nearly as possible the natural order of development suggested by the titles to the four great divisions of the work, and take precedence according to the relative priority of the earliest Map in each as numbered in the 'Nouvelles Annales.' Upon this plan the ensuing Index has been prepared. M. de Santarem speaks of all the Maps enumerated in his list as 'published;' but there are a few which cannot be traced. Many inexactitudes will be observed in his descriptions and notices, —two or three of the Maps in the list in the 'Nouvelles Annales' are repeated more than once. The headings to the engraved Maps, and the corresponding titles in the list in the 'Nouvelles Annales,' are sometimes very dissimilar; occasionally the dates assigned on the maps and in the list differ by a century. It would appear that the list in the 'Nouvelles Annales' was very carelessly drawn up (probably in consequence of illness), but it is nevertheless the only guide afforded to the intention of the author." The index is in two tables, the first "Shewing what Maps (as enumerated in the 'Nouvelles Annales') are contained in each Sheet or Plate as arranged and numbered in this copy," and the second "Shewing how each Map, as enumerated in the classified list in the 'Nouvelles Annales des Voyages,' may be found in the sheets of the present copy, as now arranged and numbered."

After the above title and leaf of contents, the Lenox copy contains: title of the Atlas of 1849, verso blank; title of the Atlas of 1842 (No. 76835, supra), verso blank; "Avertissement" beginning "Dans le texte de notre ouvrage," pp. 2, followed on pages 3 and 4 by a list of 23 "Cartes contenues dans l'Atlas de l'ouvrage sur la priorité de la découverte de la côte occidentale d'Afrique au dela du cap Bojador par les Portugais;" "Avertissement" beginning "La présente livraison comprend la suite des monuments de la géographie du moyen age," and dated "Paris, le 10 janvier 1844," pp. 1–3, verso blank. Then come the four divisions as follows, each plate being on a single leaf unless otherwise described :

Half-title : Première partie. Représentations du système des zones habitables et inhabitables dessinées pendant le moyen age, pour servir de démonstration aux théories des cosmographes de cette période historique. Roses des vents, en douze divisions, telles qu'elles sont figurées dans les manuscrits du moyen age. Mappemondes et planisphères, représentant la forme de la terre et de ses divisions, dressées depuis le VIe siècle jusqu'au commencement du XVe siècle, antérieurement aux grandes découvertes des Portugais et des Espagnols. ["A variation of this mock title, in smaller type, and the page surrounded by a border of two lines, is known, which was probably printed experimentally, as the form of the preceding article was followed in the case of the half title to the second, third, and fourth parts of the Atlas."]

The lists of plates given by Leclerc ("Bibliotheca Americana," 1878, pp. 149–151), and Muller (Catalogue for 1872, pp. 283, 284), furnish the following additional titles:

Mappa terræ habitabilis ... per Math. de Parisio (XIIIe ou XIVe siècle).—Mappemonde du XIIIe siècle d'après le MS. 14, C. XII. du Musée Britannique. This is No. 14 in Leclerc's list and No. 30 in Muller's. It appears to contain Nos. [16] and [20] of the above list together on a single plate.

Mappemonde des grandes chroniques de S. Denis (1364–1372). This is No. 16 in Leclerc's list. It probably differs from No. [21] of the above list, which is Leclerc's No. 17.

Mappemonde de Marino Sanuto dans les MSS. Nos. 9347–48 de la Bibl. de Bruxelles. This is No. 27*bis* in Muller's list. The title seems to differ from that of No. [17] of the above list, yet it may be the same map.

Leclerc's No. 57 was a duplicate of his No. 56 executed in Italy. No. [56] of the above list is evidently the same as Leclerc's No. 56.

Very few copies contain all of the plates, in fact a complete set is almost unprocurable. Many of the maps are beautifully colored in some sets.

SANUTO (L.) Geografia | di M. Livio Sanvto | distinta in XII libri. | Ne quali, oltra l'esplicatione di molti luoghi di Tolomeo, e della Bussola, e dell' | Aguglia, si dichiarano le Prouincie, Popoli, Regni, Città, | Porti, Monti, Fiumi, Laghi, e Costumi dell' Africa. | Con XII tauole di essa Africa in dissegno di rame. | Aggiuntiui de piu tre Indici da | M. Giovan Carlo Saraceni. | Con Privilegio | In Vinegia. Appresso Damiano Zenaro. M. D. LXXXVIII. | Folio, engraved title within an ornamental border, leaves (23), 146. 12 folded copperplate Maps. 76897

"Livio was the son of the Senator Francesco Sanuto, of Venice. In youth he visited Germany to study Mathematics. Being of a practical turn, he made many mathematical instruments, according to the precepts of Ptolemy and others, which were preserved in his family. He next applied himself to Cosmography, and collected out of the best authorities materials for a Terrestrial Globe, in which he was assisted by his brother Giulio, who engraved all the plates with his own hand. Observing that Africa was imperfectly described, he set to work and compiled this Book with its 12 large maps drawn by himself and engraved by his brother. He intended to publish descriptions of the other parts of the World, but died about 1585, at the age of fifty-six. The present work is therefore posthumous and was edited by Damiano Zenaro, who dedicated it to Benedetto Zorzi, son of the Signor Aluise. The three excellent Tables of Contents were made by Giovan Carlo Saraceni. The beautiful engraved title-page is by Giacomo Franco. Books I and II treat of Cosmography in general, especially of Latitudes and Longitudes, and how to determine them. He speaks frequently of the Piloto maggiore Sebastian Cabot, and says that having learned from Oviedo and others that he had explained to Henry VII the variation of the needle, Sanuto became intensely anxious to know Cabot's point of no variation. He therefore instituted a triangular correspondence through his friend Guido Gianetti da Fano, once Venetian Ambassador in England, who wrote to Bartholomew Compagni in London, who obtained [from] Cabot the necessary information. At folio 16, he cites Barros, and says it is evident from what he states that Asia cannot be joined to the New World. He goes on to quote Zeno, who makes Engronelandia bounded by the Ocean. He then blames Oronce Finé and Vopellio for joining Mexico and Cathay, and marvels how they could make such a blunder when Cortes, Gomara, and others had stated that the Mexicans fled at the sight of a horse, an animal which abounds in Asia. In a similar way, in many instances, he sets matters right. The rest of the volume is a kind of Gazetteer of Africa, arranged in departments."—STEVENS's Bib. Geog., No. 2461.
